Notes on Adjournment

Arizona	The Legislature may meet until April 21.
Illinois	Adjournment typically occurs between the end of May and late June.
Michigan	The Legislature may meet until December 31, but the actual adjournment date is set by a concurrent resolution, typically adopted around the last two weeks of session.
New York	The formal legislative session typically ends in June, although full adjournment does not occur until the end of the calendar year.
Ohio	The formal legislative session is scheduled through end of June; however, formal adjournment will occur in December.
Rhode Island	The formal legislative session is scheduled through April, although formal adjournment usually occurs at some point in June.
Tennessee	The Legislature may meet for 90 legislative days over the course of its two-year session. The 90 days are typically evenly divided, generally leading to adjournment mid-April.
