Democratic Nominee

Mark Myles

Mark Myles is a defense attorney from Oklahoma City and previously worked for IBM for over 20 years.

Myles has been critical of former Attorney General Scott Pruitt charging him with mismanagement of the office and the Trump Administration's immigration policies.

One of his top priorities if elected is the opioid epidemic. He wants the Office to target pill mills and drug traffickers.

He is in favor of criminal justice reform citing that every dollar spent on non-violent first-time offenders could be going towards education or healthcare.

Trivia: Myles was on a championship basketball team in high school.
