

Mississippi

Voters in Mississippi will elect a Governor, Lt. Governor, and Attorney General this cycle. All 122 House seats will be on the ballot as well as all 52 Senate seats. Republicans are expected to maintain control of both chambers. Republicans will be defending the Governor's Office while Democrats will be defending the Office of the Attorney General.

Attorney General

Republican Nominee

Treasurer Lynn Fitch

Treasurer Lynn Fitch (R) was first elected in 2011 and won re-election in 2015. The Fitch campaign has a message of solution-driven conservatism. She is pro-life and pro-second amendment rights. Treasurer Fitch wants to streamline the state's rules and regulations.

Treasurer Fitch has pledged to build partnerships with law enforcement and first responders. She will continue to tackle the state's opioid epidemic. And, has pledged to work to end human trafficking.

She is also running on her years of experience, often citing her time as a litigator, counsel for the Legislature, and as head of a statewide agency.

In the past, she has advocated for closing the gender pay gap in the state.

She has three children.

Trivia: Fitch began her legal career in the Office of the Attorney General over three decades ago as a special assistant attorney general.*