

ALABAMA

Voters in Alabama will elect a Governor, Lt. Governor, and Attorney General this cycle. All 105 Alabama State House seats will be on the ballot as well as all 35 Senate seats. Republicans are expected to maintain control of all branches of government.

Attorney General

Democratic Nominee

Wendell Major \(D\)

Wendell Major (D) served in the Marine Corps after high school, later graduating with a degree in criminal justice from the University of Alabama and a law degree from the Birmingham School of Law. He spent over 30 years as a Deputy Sheriff in Jefferson County.

If elected, Major plans to address the opioid crisis in Alabama by redirecting funds currently being used for the enforcement of the Alabama Memorial Preservation Act of 2017, which requires local governments to obtain state permission before moving or renaming confederate statues.

He plans to use his position to provide mental health resources to both the police and the public.

Trivia: Major graduated from the FBI Academy and is a licensed polygrapher.
