

ILLINOIS

Illinois voters will elect a governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, comptroller, and state treasurer in 2026. Thirty-nine (39) of the 59 seats in the Illinois State Senate and all 118 seats in the Illinois House of Representatives are up for election. Democrats currently hold a strong advantage in both the executive and legislative branches and are expected to maintain control of state government following the 2026 elections.

State Treasurer

Republican Nominee

Max Solomon

Max Solomon is running a low-profile campaign, and his detailed platform has not yet been widely publicized.

Solomon earned an associate degree in political science from South Suburban Community College, a bachelor's degree in political science from DePaul University, a master's degree in theology from Valparaiso University, and a law degree from Valparaiso University School of Law.

His career experience includes working as an attorney. Solomon also teaches political science and law-related classes as an adjunct at South Suburban Community College.

Trivia: Max Solomon was born in Lagos, Nigeria.