

MASSACHUSETTS

Voters in the Commonwealth will select a governor, attorney general, and treasurer this election cycle. Forty (40) out of 99 senate seats and all 160 house seats are also up for election. Democrats are expected to control all executive offices and maintain their supermajorities in the house and senate.

Treasurer

Democratic Nominee

Treasurer Deb Goldberg

Deb Goldberg was first elected as treasurer in 2014 and was reelected in 2018 and 2022. Prior to her time as treasurer, Goldberg served six years on the Brookline Board of Selectmen, including two years as chair.

Goldberg's reelection campaign emphasizes economic stability, affordability, housing, financial education, small-business support, childcare, and expanding access to economic opportunity.

Goldberg plans to expand the Baby Steps Savings Plan, stating that over 53,000 families have enrolled in the program since its creation. Through the program, families can receive $50 from the state to open a U.Fund 529 College Savings Account within one year of their child's birth or adoption.

Financial education has been a centerpiece of Goldberg's platform, expanding public-private partnerships to increase funding for financial education and teacher training in schools. Goldberg launched the Massachusetts Professional Development Grant for Educators that provides teachers with the opportunity to complete personal finance virtual trainings.

Goldberg launched the Small Business Initiative, expanding resources for small business owners and entrepreneurs. She leads the Investing for the Long-Term Initiative \(Invest MA\) which puts state cash deposits into banks to expand their small business lending.

Goldberg vows to increase corporate accountability, specifically as it relates to corporations' impact on the climate.

Trivia: Deb Goldberg holds a law degree from Boston College and an MBA from Harvard University.