

MASSACHUSETTS

Voters in the Commonwealth will select a governor, attorney general, and treasurer this election cycle. Forty (40) out of 99 senate seats and all 160 house seats are also up for election. Democrats are expected to control all executive offices and maintain their supermajorities in the house and senate.

Treasurer

Republican Nominee

Elizabeth Dionne

Elizabeth Dionne previously practiced law at Goodwin Procter and Testa Hurwitz & Thibault and worked as a pro bono attorney at Massachusetts Advocates for Children. She has also taught constitutional law and political science at Wellesley College and Boston College.

Dionne's campaign for treasurer is centered on fiscal accountability, transparency in state government, stronger investment returns for public pension funds, and increased local aid.

To increase fiscal accountability, Dionne calls to implement revenue-based budgeting for all treasury operations. She will work to eliminate wasteful spending, identify redundant programs, and return more tax dollars to local governments.

Dionne wants to create the most transparent treasury office in history, calling to eliminate corrupt government offices and require fiscal performance reports to be made publicly available.

While serving as a Select Board Member, Dionne states that she successfully advocated for the investment of 100% of Belmont's Retirement System assets into the state-run Pension Reserves Investment Trust. As treasurer, she pledges to maximize returns on state pension funds and investments to encourage cities and towns to join state-run investment systems.

Trivia: Elizabeth Dionne earned her Juris Doctorate from Stanford Law School and a Master of Arts in Political Science from Boston College.
