

COLORADO

Voters in Colorado will elect a new governor to replace term limited Governor Jared Polis (D), a new attorney general, and treasurer. All 65 seats in the house and approximately half (17) of the senate will also be on the ballot.

Treasurer

Democratic Nominee

State Senator Jeff Bridges

Colorado State Senator Jeff Bridges has served in the senate since his appointment in 2019 and previously in the state house from 2017-2019. He currently chairs the Senate Appropriations Committee and is Vice Chair of Colorado's Joint Budget Committee, the bipartisan legislative group that signs off on the final state budget.

Bridges has pledged to use his experience managing Colorado's budget to address Colorado's affordability crisis. In an interview with KRDO, he stated that, "My top priority is affordability. Housing costs, healthcare costs, and utility bills have all risen faster than many families' paychecks." By shifting Colorado's priorities from national financial investments (such as mortgage-backed securities), Bridges wants to use Colorado funds on affordable housing, infrastructure, and clean energy projects inside the state -- as his campaign website puts it, "Instead of parking them on Wall Street and Washington, I'll put them to work right here at home."

Trivia: Bridges has a Masters in Divinity from Harvard.