

KANSAS

Voters in Kansas will elect a governor, Lt. governor, and attorney general, along with state treasurer. All 125 state house seats and two state senate seats are up for election. Kansas remains firmly Republican at the legislative level, while the executive races are expected to be competitive.

State Treasurer

Democratic Nominee

Juan Luengo

Juan C. Luengo is the CEO of Engage Insurance Group and has approximately 20 years of experience in risk management and insurance. Luengo has also been involved in community advocacy, including work related to family court reform and mental health issues. He became active in politics about four years ago and served as chair of the Kansas Democratic Party's Hispanic Caucus.

Luengo is campaigning on five primary priorities: expanding Kansas' 529 savings program to cover trades and apprenticeships, using state deposits to help lower borrowing costs for small businesses and farmers, creating a nonpartisan Kansas Economic Council, improving the return of unclaimed property and advocating for property-tax relief, and modernizing the Treasurer's Office to improve customer service.

Trivia: Luengo is a graduate of the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses program.