

WYOMING

Voters in Wyoming will elect a new governor this year as incumbent Governor Mark Gordon (R) is term limited. All 62 house seats are on the ballot along with 16 of the 31 senate seats. Republicans are expected to maintain control of the governorship and the legislature.

Governor

Democratic Nominee

Ken Casner

Ken Casner advanced from the Democratic primary after running unopposed. Casner is a frequent candidate in state politics, having previously run for governor in 2002 and 2018 as well as 2020 Democratic primary for U.S. Senate. A third-generation Wyoming native, he has 27 years of military service and has owned and operated a small business since 1998.

Casner's campaign message centers on strengthening opportunities for Wyoming's working class, supporting local communities, and ensuring that government remains accountable.

He supports universal health care, protecting water rights and agricultural resources, and a restructuring of the state's tax system.

The Cook Political Report and the Center for Politics Sabato's Crystal Ball have both rated this race as Safe Republican.

Trivia: Casner is a retired Wyoming Army National Guard Master Sergeant.
