

VERMONT

Voters in the Green Mountain State will head to the polls to select their choice for governor, attorney general, and treasurer. All 30 state senate seats and all 150 state house seats are also on the ballot. Governor Phil Scott (R) has maintained steadfast support among both Republicans and Democrats and is expected to secure a sixth two-year term in office while the state legislature will likely remain under Democratic control.

Treasurer

Republican Nominee

Lynn LaFleur

The Republican party selected Lynn LaFleur as their nominee for treasurer. LaFleur currently owns her own accounting business, Perfect Balance Accounting, that provides small businesses, groups, associations, and individuals with personalized accounting services. She also works as a Senior Homeowner Association Accountant at Smugglers' Notch Resort.

LaFleur's campaign priorities include identifying additional sources of state revenue, specifically as it relates to funding for state pensions and healthcare as well as restoring transparency to the treasurer's office. She states that "taxpayers should know where their money is going and how it is being invested."
