

KANSAS

Voters in Kansas will elect a governor, Lt. governor, and attorney general, along with state treasurer. All 125 state house seats and two state senate seats are up for election. Kansas remains firmly Republican at the legislative level, while the executive races are expected to be competitive.

State Treasurer

Republican Nominee

State Treasurer Steven Johnson

Steven Johnson has served as state treasurer since 2023 and is seeking election to a second term. Before becoming treasurer, Johnson represented the 108th District in the Kansas House of Representatives for 12 years, where he chaired the House Taxation Committee. He has more than 30 years of experience in investing and financial planning.

Johnson's reelection campaign highlights efforts to improve the state's cash-flow operations, reduce investment fees, strengthen financial oversight, and expand financial education.

Johnson boasts that his administration has generated millions in additional earnings through improved cash management and reduced fees for state investment savings plans by more than $25 million annually.

Trivia: Johnson is a longtime farmer from the small community of Assaria, south of Salina.